

Firm Background

Sternberg is looking for a talented and motivated Architectural Intern or Junior Architect with 1- 4 years of experience seeking a unique opportunity to help us shape the future of our growing architectural practice.

We believe in a truly collaborative approach to design, which for us means that all team members should have a voice and a sense of ownership in the process. We are dedicated to fostering the professional growth of each of our team members through direct mentorship and by providing opportunities to take an active role in the firm's day-to-day operations.

We are currently looking for an Architectural Intern or Junior Architect to assist in the design, the production of construction documents and contract administration. We highly value curiosity, enthusiasm, a commitment to professional growth, and the ability to work well with others.

Salary is negotiable and commensurate with experience. The successful applicant will be entitled to Sternberg Architecture's Benefit package.
